Sickle Cell Checkup camp

The socio-economical background of many youths from shahada, is one of the barrier in general health awareness in students. Many times it happens these youths ignore issue which seems small but can impact on healthy life. Sickle cell is also one of the issue found but ignored many times. This sickle cells can be break apart easily and die, so deficiency in red blood cells. Red blood cells usually live for about 120 days before they need to be replaced. But sickle cells usually die in 10 to 20 days, leaving a shortage of red blood cells (anemia). Without enough red blood cells, your body can't get the oxygen it needs to feel energized, causing fatigue. This tiredness was many times ignored.

To aware youths about this issue S.T.Co-Op Education Society's Science Senior College, Shahada organized sickle cell camp on 4th February 2015. On this occasion Dr. gives the detailed information about sickle cell anemia, its reasons and prevention techniques. At this occasion Honorable Tatyasaheb Motilal Fakira Patil gives the message prevention is better than treatment always. Furthermore he concluded that with the help of proper lifestyle and diet, it is possible to complete needs of health.

This camp was visited by Honorable Chairman of S.T. ## Notebook Distribution Program for poor students

After food, cloth and shelter, education is important need of human being. Education enhanced thinking level of human being for sustainable development and peaceful society. It seems this is the world of technology, but we cannot ignore the differences between humans. Education can be worked as tool to decrease these differences, for that we have to give helping hands for poor students and encourage them to study, as these students are the next generation society.

Keeping these thoughts in mind S.T.Co-Op's Science Senior College, Shahada decided to encourage poor students from rural area. The program was decided such that the students from mainstream in our college may think on this issue and should suggest some program for it. With the idea sharing within students it is decided to produce useful things from wasteg materials and distribute it within poor students. For this program college students were worked hard in the direction of 80 volunteers from NSS unit. They went to many houses and junk collectors to collect good pages from used notebook. With these good pages students created the 1100 good notebooks, which were distributed among poor students from kalsadi village. This program was fulfilled both the mottos that student from mainstream education got aware about the financial hurdles for poor students. Besides that the poor students got motivated for study.

S.T.Co-Op's education Society's chairman honorable Tatyasaheb Motilal Fakira Patil chaired the program. In his presidential speech he appreciated efforts taken by students and direction by staff for such a wonderful concept to decrease difference between college students and poor students from village like kalsadi. The notebook distribution program was attended by Mr. Jaydevbhai Patel (Vice President, S.T.Co-Op's Education Society), Mr. Narendrabhai Shaha (Life member S.T.Co-Op's Education Society) and Mr. Abhijeetdada Patil (Director, S.T.Co-Op's Education Society). Assistant P.O. NSS Asst. Prof. Bhushan Nikam Sir was done with anchoring of this program.
